

QuiltNSW Accredited Teacher List

Chris Bennett- Accredited Teacher of Basic Techniques Chris has been sewing for as long as she can remember. Her love of craft was passed on by her mother, who at the age of 93 is still an avid sewer. It seemed a natural progression and desire to pass on her sewing skills and knowledge and so became a patchwork teacher 30 years ago. Chris has a wide range of teaching experience and expertise in patchwork and Adult Education and a passion for teaching adults from beginner level. Email: clbenn@optusnet.com.au 9876 8997
Meredith Budd- Accredited Teacher of Special Techniques Meredith has been quilting, designing, publishing and teaching since 2008. She runs a long-arm quilting business, Dragon Quilt Services and has designed a range of rulers and templates to make patchworked blocks as simply and perfectly as possible. Her workshops focus on technique with students learning to make perfect blocks and to repeat the method for any size. Meredith inspires students to create their own masterpieces using a variety of traditional blocks in a new way. dragon.quilt.services@hotmail.com - www.dragonquiltservices.com - 02 67605142
Linda Butcher - Accredited Teacher of Basic techniques Linda teaches beginner patchwork and quilting with a focus on handwork. She also teaches advanced techniques, in particular, hand applique and English paper piecing. Linda has a number of quilts she has designed that students may wish to sew. Please contact Linda for details of these and her availability for classes. E-mail: almhbutcher@hotmail.com
Cathy-Jack Coupland – Accredited Teacher of Special Techniques Cathy believes there is no better way to learn than through doing. Doing is so, so important. Students are encouraged to question, experiment and push Cathy to her absolute limits! Her focus is to inspire creativity and curiosity through a strong technique base, developing beautiful textures, patterns, and dimension, along with generating a love for the versatility and beauty of machine-made stitch. cathyjackcoupland@gmail.com
Amanda Daly – Accredited Teacher of Special Techniques Amanda has been teaching, designing and publishing since the mid 90's and has a passion for teaching her distinctive small, very neatly finished raw edge applique projects. However, she is versatile and has a large range of projects from bed quilts that are a twist on the traditional, to mixed media projects, slightly three-dimensional projects and more. Amanda has produced many patterns and a comprehensive guide booklet to patchwork and quilting. adalydesigns@tpg.com.au - 0408 966196 - 02 9654 9463

QuiltNSW Accredited Teacher List

Sue Dennis – Accredited Teacher of Special Techniques, Sue has been teaching since 1992, with her early years spent in the Queensland outback travelling to small towns. Her specialty these days is in art quilting and the workshops offered reflect the numerous surface design techniques she uses in her prizewinning quilts; direct, relief and mono printing, dyeing, frottage, design and the quilted surface. Sue has taught in Australia, New Zealand, the USA, Taiwan, South Korea, China and Mongolia. info@suedennis.com - phone 0429051432
Kathy Doughty– Accredited Teacher of Workshop Techniques Kathy, of Material Obsession, teaches workshops with an emphasis on building confidence and making decisions about selecting fabric. Her workshops are based on discovering interesting methods of making creative projects unique to the maker. Since 2003 Kathy has worked with customers in the shop, written seven books and designs fabric for FreeSpirit Fabrics in the USA. She depends on her acquired experience to communicate the language of fabric. kathy@materialobsession.com.au Instagram @matobsgirl
Pam Furniss – Accredited Teacher of Special Techniques After many years of teaching Pam's aim has always been to provide a relaxed and enjoyable learning environment. Encouraging confidence and creativity in each student has always be a priority. I specialise in machine quilting, applique and quilt as you go. I have developed many small technique classes designed to teach teaching better use of the sewing machine, while developing advanced quilting and applique skills www.pamfurnissquilts.com - Mobile 0412 506 909
Sue Griffiths– Accredited Teacher of Basic Techniques Sue is a keen quilter and quilt teacher. She has been quilting since the 1970's and loves learning and teaching new techniques. She has taught many old and new friends to quilt starting from absolute beginners. She has taught colour and pattern selection, piecing techniques, appliqué techniques, walking foot quilting, free motion and ruler quilting. She is a quilt pattern designer and loves sharing her patterns. Email: suegriffiths@duckcreekmountainquilting.com - Website: www.duckcreekmountainquilting.com
Jane Grove– Accredited Teacher of Special Techniques Jane is a formally trained teacher and applies these skills as an Independent Freelance Educator. She presents one, two and three day workshops, providing a range of learning opportunities which include practical hands-on workshops, guided practice lessons, lectures and demonstrations. Jane teaches all facets of patchwork, quilting and sewing, with her specialty being computerised machine embroidery. Lives in Queensland and is happy to travel to teach. Website - Studiojanegrove.com.au Email - info@studiojanegrove.com.au Studio - 07 4401 5601 - Mobile - 0427 751 604

QuiltNSW Accredited Teacher List

Kay Haerland – Accredited Teacher of Special Techniques Kay retired from face to face teaching after years of giving classes on pictorial quilting, and embarked on making a series of six DVDs to continue her teaching journey and to help others learn “What I do and How I do it”. Using her work as examples, these DVDS cover the key aspects of pictorial quilts and textile manipulation. Search ‘YouTube’ with “Kay Haerland” for introductions to the DVDs and go to her website for ordering information khaer@bigpond.net.au
Katrina Hadjimichael – Accredited Teacher of Workshop Techniques Katrina has been teaching her original quilt designs for the past 18 years in Sydney, interstate and overseas at retreats and Quilting Symposiums. She has taught many techniques to quilters from beginners to advanced including machine piecing, machine applique, whack and stack quilts and paper foundation piecing. Her love for traditional styles and reproduction fabrics led her to create the Jane Austen Quilt Collection which focuses on hand applique, English paper piecing and fussy cutting. Mobile: 0448 602 332 - email: kat.had@bigpond.com – Website: www.katrinahadjimichael.com.au
Colleen Harradine - Accredited Teacher of Special Techniques Colleen lives on the Mid North Coast of NSW and is happy to travel. She teaches most aspects of quilting from beginner level up and can cater for most needs. Personally Colleen enjoys designing and making miniatures, and making big quilts for her family. Email colleenharradine@yahoo.co.uk
Lynn Hewitt – Accredited Teacher of Basic Techniques Lynn Hewitt has been teaching Patchwork and Quilting for 28 years. She teaches a variety of machine pieced quilt workshops including Winding Ways and a reversible jacket. Currently she is teaching popular Confetti Naturescapes Workshop with permission from Noriko Endo in Japan. hewitte@optusnet.com.au
Jennifer Horsford – Accredited Teacher of Special Techniques Jennifer’s quilts are far from basic. They include advanced methods of applique, colour techniques and detailed painting on fabric enabling students to attain the finer details that can’t be achieved by using fabric alone. For students who have tried painting on fabric without achieving the desired effect, a workshop with Jennifer will set you on a different path and provide an enjoyable experience, something different and exciting taught by a skilled teacher experienced in making the classes enjoyable. www.jenniferhorsford.com 07 49451064 or 0417283377

QuiltNSW Accredited Teacher List

Deborah Louie - Accredited Teacher of Special Techniques Deborah is passionate about teaching domestic machine owners to get the very best from their sewing machines. Tutoring full time since 2000, Deborah offers an extensive range of machine skill building classes, both with the walking foot and free motion, formal, free form and contemporary styles. Machine appliqué both decorative stitch appliqué and free form design sketch appliqué and wool free form embroidery. Self-published step by step full colour books, patterns and templates are also available www.deborahlouie.com.au
Wendy Nutt—Accredited Teacher of Basic Techniques With each workshop, tips and tricks for efficient working systems and effortless methods are discussed and utilised for the individual to gain fundamental skill building techniques. Some of the techniques and skills available for workshops - Sewing Machine Knowhow, Design Skills, Appliqué Techniques, Improvised Cutting and Piecing, Working With Curves, Bias Appliqué, Quilt As You Go Techniques, Freezer Paper Foundation Piecing, Walking Foot and Free Motion Quilting and Finishing Techniques. The specific workshop needs of individual groups can also be catered for. wendyenuitt@icloud.com - Instagram - @quiltamour
Meg Orr – Accredited Teacher of Special Techniques Meg has been teaching for 20 years, specializing Quilt as you go projects and non-traditional Cathedral Windows that can create Diamond and Teardrop shapes. Her workshops can be done by most quilters who are on friendly terms with their machines. Meg has taught widely from Cairns to Cobargo and out to Norfolk Island. Meg has also enjoyed teaching at the Rosehill Stitches and Craft Show and has had several projects published in Australian Quilting Magazines. megorr@iinet.net.au
Catherine Porter – Accredited Teacher of Special Techniques Catherine is embarking on a different direction with her teaching and inspiring quilters. Initially concentrating on teaching meshwork and fabric weaving techniques through workshops, she will now continue by simply demonstrating the techniques and will be following her new passion by developing presentations of her stunning vintage textiles collection (particularly Kantha and Ralli quilts) to interested groups as a show and tell and demonstrating some of the techniques used. catherineporter@optusnet.com.au - 0430 591 622
Therese Rankmore – Accredited Teacher of Basic Techniques Therese trained as a Fashion Teacher many years ago, her passion shifted into Patchwork and Quilting over 30 years ago and has since been teaching a wide array of patchwork techniques, including the basics, scraps, fats and other pre-cuts are popular as well as free motion and walking foot quilting, mystery quilts, creative cutting methods, quilt as you go, bag making and much more. Mobile: 0402867180 - Email: therese@gumnutgear.com.au – Website/blog: www.gumnutgear.com.au

There are many more QuiltNSW accredited teachers, some have retired, are no longer a QuiltNSW member, or have other reason for declining to be included. If you are a QuiltNSW accredited teacher and wish to be included in this list, please contact accreditation@quiltNSW.com

Last Updated August 2019