Our sponsor - The Grace Company

Our story begins with Grace Bagley, the original home-based quilter, more than thirty years ago. As she worked closely with the quilters in her community at a local quilt shop, she noticed the unmet needs in the offerings of the quilting industry at that time. During a conversation with her son, Jim, Grace expressed her observations, not knowing that these comments made in passing would spark the idea to invent a better quilting frame and serve as the foundation of a company.
